Weaving A Web of Light

with Sandra Ingerman and Llewellyn Vaughan-Lee

MAY WE BE THOSE WHO SHALL RENEW THIS EXISTENCE. Zarathustra

Our light carries the secret of our divine purpose. When we connect together with the light of others we can weave a web of light that carries our shared power and purpose: the potential to help the world come alive with the wonder and magic hidden within it.

We can help the heart of the world open and begin to sing.

Sunday, February 26, 2006 from 10:00am - 5:30pm at the Peacock Gap Country Club 333 Biscayne Drive, San Rafael, California.

Advance registration is requested. Register by February 6: $75 per person After February 6 or at the door (if space allows): $85 per person.

Attendance to the entire event is required. Registration is from 9:00am - 10:00am. Please arrive on time. The doors will close at 10:00am.

Sandra Ingerman

Sandra Ingerman teaches workshops internationally on shamanic journeying, healing, and reversing environmental pollution using spiritual methods. She has trained and founded an international alliance of Medicine for the Earth teachers and shamanic teachers. Sandra is recognized for bridging ancient cross-cultural healing methods into our modern culture, addressing the needs of our times. A licensed marriage and family therapist and professional mental health counselor, she is also a board-certified expert on traumatic stress as well as certified in acute traumatic stress management. She is author of several books including Medicine for the Earth: How to Transform Personal and Environmental Toxins, as well as "Miracles for the Earth" and other lecture programs produced by Sounds True. For further information please visit www.sandraingerman.com

Llewellyn Vaughan-Lee

A Sufi Teacher in the Naqshbandiyya-Mujaddidiyya Sufi Order, Llewellyn Vaughan-Lee has specialized in the area of dreamwork, integrating the ancient Sufi approach to dreams with the insights of modern psychology. In recent years the focus of his writing and teaching has been on spiritual responsibility in our present time of transition, and the emerging global consciousness of oneness (please see www.workingwithoneness.org). Author of several books, including Spiritual Power: How it Works, and The Face Before I was Born: A Spiritual Autobiography, he lectures throughout the United States and Europe. For further information, please visit www.goldensufi.org.

This event is part of an ongoing series of events on working with oneness and the emerging global consciousness of oneness. For further information, please visit www.workingwithoneness.org or contact Seana Quinn at seana@workingwithoneness.org.
