

WHERE the TWO SEAS MEET: Introduction to the Sufi Path of Love

Unique Australian Public Events

A showing of a series of five talks given this year by Sufi teacher Llewellyn Vaughan-Lee in Tiburon, California. These talks offer an introduction and outline of Sufism, as well as an understanding of its living presence.

There will be a dvd screening of each talk, followed by silent meditation and then time for questions and spiritual discussion with Sandy Kondos.

1) Introduction to Sufism	31 July, 2010
2) The One Quality Needed for the Path	28 August, 2010
3) Meditation	18 September, 2010
4) From Separation to Union	30 October, 2010
5) Sufism's Contribution to the West	27 November, 2010

Time: 3 – 6pm (doors open 2.45pm)

Where: Crows Nest Centre, 2 Ernest Place, Crows Nest NSW 2065.
Nearest Train Station St Leonard's.

Suggested donation: $10. Light refreshments will be provided.

Please note: You are welcome to attend one or more of these events regardless if you have attended the previous.

For further information, contact Sandy Kondos: australia@goldensufi.org, tel: 0425-373-088

These recorded talks are with Llewellyn Vaughan-Lee, Ph.D., a teacher in the Naqshbandiyya-Mujaddidiyya Sufi Order (www.goldensufi.org). Founder of The Golden Sufi Center, in recent years the focus of his writing and teaching has been on spiritual responsibility in our present time of transition, and the emerging global consciousness of oneness (see www.workingwithoneness.org). Author of several books, he lectures throughout the United States and Europe.

Sandy Kondos has been a student of the Sufi teachers Irina Tweedie and Llewellyn Vaughan-Lee for the past twenty-five years, and is the Australian representative for The Golden Sufi Center. Born in Australia, she lived for many years in London and returned to Sydney in 1996. She works as a psychotherapist in Sydney and lives in the Blue Mountains with her husband and two children.